Becoming a member gives you the privilege of voting and holding office as a member of the Board of Directors. This membership entitles you to take part in the programs that are offered at the Centre and participate in any program of your choice. We offer programs for every age group so there's always something for everyone.

Every member has the right to contribute to the Centre, in any positive way so we may reach new goals & develop new progress while keeping Odawa's objectives in mind

*Members under 18 years of age are not eligible to vote in matters affecting the administration of the centre.
All applications will be kept in strict confidence.*
