SEARCHING, SEEKING, SEEING!

SUPPORTING THE JOURNEY OF OUR ABORIGINAL YOUTH

ABOUT THIS CONFERENCE:

A two-day Aboriginal youth services conference featuring:

Renowned guest speakers, professionals and Aboriginal Elders.
Discussions on contemporary, urban Aboriginal youth issues.
Inspiring workshops from a First Nations, Inuit and Métis perspective.
Catered lunches that provide ample networking opportunities.

GUEST SPEAKERS:

Dr. Martin Brokenleg is professor of Native American Studies at Augustana College and Dean of the Black Hills Seminars on youth-at-risk. He holds a doctorate in psychology and is a graduate of the Episcopal Divinity School. He has been a director of The Neighborhood Youth Corps, chaplain in a correctional setting, and has extensive experience as an alcohol counsellor.

Michael C. Chettleburgh is one of Canada's foremost authorities on street gangs. He is the author of Young Thugs: Inside the Dangerous World of Canadian Street Gangs, an unflinching and eye-opening exposé of the makeup, workings, and politics surrounding Canadian youth gangs.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- Service Providers who work with Aboriginal youth and families
- Parents and caregivers of teens and pre-teens
- Aboriginal youth
- Students (Child & Youth Workers, Social Work, Psychology, Criminology, Aboriginal Studies etc.)
